I want to assure you that we appreciate your good offices in behalf of [   ] and further that we have made a number of efforts to engineer a suitable placement for him since his case began with us in the late summer of 1950. I am sure you realize that there are special considerations in his case which make his proper utilization a matter of considerable difficulty unless exactly the right situation develops. [   ] file is definitely on our active list and will be periodically reactivated for consideration whenever a suitable opportunity presents itself.

In the meantime, may I say on behalf of General Smith, thank you again for your renewed interest in this gentleman's qualifications.

Sincerely yours,
